afghan 5/1 99 "from moscow's viewpoint," review of week's events: soviet press has reported that 38th anniv of victory over fascism was also widely marked in afghanistan. a ceremony was held in kabul in which afghan defense minister lauded heroism of soviet people. at present, soviet reactionaries and imperialist forces are waging undeclared wars in various parts of world, such as in nicaragua and afghanistan.

Nicaragua 5/1 recently afghanistan expelled u.s. diplomat for undesirable activity against dra. new york times had lately reported that in accordance with direct orders from president reagan u.s. government had increased its military aid to afghan counterrevolutionaries.

India 5/1 this is an indication of impotence of foes of afghan nation as had been demonstrated by recent liquidation of counterrevolutionary group known as afghan-melet. stateman newspaper of india has written that normalization of situation in afghanistan is not to liking of its enemies. for this reason they try to hamper progressive changes in country. (10 min: dari 1500)
